Big Cat for June 2008

Weekend June 20th and June 22nd - Come and dive with Gareth for the weekend - This is a special weekend for all the ADVANCED divers who would like to dive sites like the St Paul, Gotham City, maybe a little deeper for those who are certified. You need a minimum of a Deep Certification (to 40 metres) to enjoy this weekend. We are limiting the number of divers to 18, so the price will be up a little, but this is to ensure safety. Come and enjoy a once in 5 year event. If it is successful, we will schedule more, but the gap between the trips will be a while.

You may do your Deep Certification as part of the trip. This offer is subject to qualification. Please see Gareth if you would like to do this.

This trip WAS full, but a last minute place has become available.
Call ASAP to take up your option on this unique trip!

Technical Diver Training

3 people have signed up so far for Technical Diving training, starting in July.

This course is an advanced course and you can do your EANx and Rescue courses as part of the training if you are not qualified in them yet.

Come and learn the ultimate in Wreck and Deep diving and be prepared for some of the most exciting dives you have ever done

The Technical Diver Course is completed in Santo on the Wreck of the President Coolidge.
One place left for this Training Course!

Instructor and Dive Controller Training

Learn to Instruct in your favourite Sport

Want a Career in Diving?
Call AllWays Diving and discuss your options.
Training can be Accredited and it is possible to get assistance from Centrelink.

AllWays Diving also offers Work for Training opportunities to qualifying applicants.

Contact Gareth for details.

Dive Report

Doesn't the weather play games with us?? Beautiful weather Monday to Friday and then the weekend plays havoc.

This weekend we are looking at some wind (bad part) but it is coming from the South West (good part). At least diving close to shore will be OK.

Last weekend we had divers on the Big Cat and divers at Cook Island. Both sites were good dives with plenty of Fish Life . Cook Island visibility was about 8 metres which is not too bad considering the amount of rain that fell in the Tweed River catchment area. This should improve rapidly now it has fined up.

Flinders Reef area was rather better with about 15 metres or so.

Water is still at 22C, you can check this on the wave buoys. The swell is right down with about a metre of swell around Point Lookout and down the same around the Tweed area.

All going well, the weekend should still be pretty good.

Up and Coming Events

Sunday 15th June – HMAS Brisbane – Come up for a fun day with the Wreck Diving Students. (6 spots left)

Saturday 28th June – Ocean Cat – Flinders Reef Area, weather permitting we will head for Henderson's Pinnacle and Cherub's Cave.

Saturday 5th July – Shore Dive – This is a nice easy shore dive with the Open Water Students.

Sunday 6th July – Ocean Dive – Cruisey dive at Cook Island

Saturday 12th July – Tweed Heads – This dive is an Advanced Dive to Nine Mile Reef, Fido Reef or the G Spot. Destination will depend on the weather. The boat is yet to be confirmed.

August 9th to 17th – Phillipines – only 2 spots left now!
All Deposits need to be in. This trip will be closing off in about 1 weeks.

As always, please phone AllWays Diving early to book for your dive trips and courses.

Courses

Pre reading is required for all these courses, so make sure you come on into your Dive Shop early to collect your manual!

Tuesday June 17th – First Aid

Thursday 26th June – Open water Course

July – Technical Diver Course Starting – We will be in touch with the signed up divers to negotiate a start date during the week after the 20th May.

Thursday 10th July – Limited Visibility – An easy specialty to start with. Good for Open Water Divers who want to expand their horizons and open up the world of Night Diving and diving safely in low visibility conditions.

Thursday 17th July – Drift Diver – Learn useful skills that make drift diving more enjoyable and much safer as well as preparing you for dives such as Nine Mile Reef or Fido Reef.

Thursday 24th July – Open Water Diver

Thursday 31st July – Nitrox – Make your diving happier or give yourself much longer bottom times particularly around the 30 to 40 metre mark. This is a pre-requisite for diving the deeper wrecks and for Technical Diving.

As always, please phone Allways Diving 3848 9100 to book for your dive trips and courses.

Scuba Rangers

This fantastic kids' activity will resume in Spring.

We run 6 sessions in the basic training and then the Scuba Rangers can move on to more advanced training

With each group, there is an option for an Overseas trip to Hideaway Island - Vanuatu
For Graduation

Keep smiling (AND Diving)
